

Please do not rescind New Jersey's 'do not call' law. We have a right to be protected from over zealous telemarketeers. Our homes are supposed to be safe havens from the craziness of life. We deserve the right to enjoy that without interruptions from unsolicited telephone calls from telemarketers....that ultimately result in our family life being disturbed and upset.